

Two Workshops on Physician Health Issues for the Los Angeles Area

When Saturday, June 4, 2016
Morning session 9:30 am to 12:30 pm (9:30 start allows for travel time)
NEW Afternoon session 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Where Los Angeles County/USC Medical Center
Inpatient Tower, 2051 Marengo St., Los Angeles, CA 90033

Morning workshop

8:30 am Registration / Coffee and rolls
9:30 Welcome, Update and Introductions
10:00 Snapshots of Medical Staff Well-being Committees:
A Closer Look at the Role of Financial Support
Bruce Jackson, MD, Providence Little Company of Mary Medical Center
Laurie Reynard, MD, Providence St. Johns Medical Center
Karen Miotto, MD, UCLA Ronald Regan
11:30 An Attorney's View: the Significance of Who Pays for What Elements
Tom Curtis, Nossaman LLP, Orange County
12:00 Identifying Resources, Sharing Information
12:30 Adjournment

Afternoon workshop

1:00 pm Registration for afternoon session
1:30 Elements of Effective Treatment for Safety Sensitive Workers (SSWs)
When the Safety Sensitive Workers are Physicians
Treatment Setting and Treatment Staff, Documentation Issues
Evaluation Needs, Reentry and Support Systems
Ongoing Treatment of Chronic Conditions, Managing Public Opinion
Paul Earley, MD, Medical Director of the Georgia Professionals Health Program
2:30 An Attorney's View: Special Criteria for Safety Sensitive Workers
Tom Curtis, Nossaman LLP, Orange County
3:30 Case Illustrations; Questions and Discussion
4:30 Adjournment

Attendance

Attendance is by invitation. Because this topic is of wide-ranging interest, invitations are extended to all interested persons with roles related to physician health.

It is not a program of continuing medical education; no CME credit is offered.

*An activity of California Public Protection and Physician Health (CPPPH)
Endorsed by Los Angeles County Medical Association and Orange County Medical Association*